

JAY H. FEASTER*EXECUTIVE VICE PRESIDENT, GENERAL MANAGER & ALTERNATE GOVERNOR

Jay Feaster is in his third season as the Executive Vice President & General Manager of the Tampa Bay Lightning and has quickly established himself as one of the NHL's top emerging executives. In 2002-03 - the team's first full season under Feaster's leadership - the Lightning achieved unprecedented success, posting a 24-point improvement while capturing the franchise's first division title and advancing to the Eastern Conference Semi-Finals for the first time. The team followed that success in 2003-04 by finishing with the top record in the Eastern Conference, earning the number one seed for the Stanley Cup Playoffs. Feaster, a native of Williamstown, PA, also had the honor of being named co-General Manager of Team USA for the 2003 World Championships along with Larry Pleau of St. Louis.

Feaster, named General Manager on February 10, 2002, joined the Lightning on October 20, 1998, from the Hershey Bears of the American Hockey League. He spent three-plus seasons as Tampa Bay's assistant general manager, overseeing all contractual, collective bargaining and NHL legal issues, as well as the organization's scouting department and its minor league affiliates in Detroit (International Hockey League), Springfield (AHL) and Pensacola (East Coast Hockey League).

As the fourth General Manager in the history of the Lightning, Feaster has pledged to make the Lightning one of the most competitive and entertaining teams in the NHL. He has promised to build a team that will work hard every shift of every game with individuals dedicated to the team objectives. Feaster has reaffirmed the organization's desire to build from within through rising young stars such as Nikita Alexeev, Vincent Lecavalier, Brad Richards and Cory Sarich, while placing his stamp on the organization by adding to his "sandpaper factor" with the acquisitions of Chris Dingman and Andre Roy and creating arguably the league's top goaltending tandem by adding John Grahame. He also has significantly increased the organization's overall depth with additions such as two-time All-Star defenseman Darryl Sydor, Cory Stillman, Ruslan Fedotenko, Brad Lukowich, Eric Perrin, Shane Willis, Darren Rumble and Pascal Trepanier.

To join the Lightning, Feaster, 41, resigned his post as president of the Bears and vice president of Hershey Sports and Entertainment. In that capacity, Feaster oversaw the operations of the Hershey Bears, the Hershey Wildcats professional soccer team and HersheyPark Arena/Stadium, including the Star Pavilion.

Feaster, who spent nine years with the Bears, led the team to a division title (1993-94) and a Calder Cup Championship (1997), while establishing three consecutive single-season attendance records (1991-92 - 1993-94) and entering into a five-year affiliation agreement with the NHL's Colorado Avalanche. The affiliation agreement allowed Feaster to work closely with and learn from Avalanche General Manager Pierre Lacroix. For his work, Feaster was named the AHL's Executive of the Year in 1997. One of Feaster's head coaches, Bob Hartley, made the jump directly from the Bears to head coach of the Colorado Avalanche, leading the Avalanche to the 2001 Stanley Cup title, while another of Feaster's former head coaches, Bill Barber, was named the 2001 Jack Adams Award winner.

Feaster originally joined the Hershey Company as assistant to the president in 1989, and was named general manager of the Bears and HersheyPark Arena/Stadium on September 1, 1990. As general manager of the 7,256 seat HersheyPark Arena and 25,000 capacity HersheyPark Stadium, Feaster led the historic facilities to record gross revenue performances in the year-end facility rankings compiled by Amusement Business magazine. During his tenure as general manager, HersheyPark Arena moved steadily up the charts from fifth in 1992 to fourth in 1993 and third in 1994 in world ranking of arenas with 5,001-10,000 seats. Over the same three years, HersheyPark Stadium climbed from eighth to second to first in the world for stadiums with 40,000 or fewer seats.

In 1996, Feaster negotiated the purchase of an A-League American Professional Soccer League (APSL) Division II franchise by Herco, the Hershey Wildcats, and then served on the A-League committee responsible for finalizing the merger between the APSL and USISL, Inc. In launching the Wildcats, Feaster hired the club's first general manager, who went on to become the A-League Executive of the Year in his first season in soccer management and later moved on to manage a team in the MLS. The team's first year Head Coach was named A-League Coach of the Year. In their inaugural season (1997), the Wildcats finished 19-9 and won the Atlantic Division regular season title. Feaster also served the newly constituted A-League as a member of its Executive Committee until his departure for Tampa.

Prior to joining the Hershey Company, Feaster practiced law with the firm of McNees, Wallace & Nurick in Harrisburg, PA. Feaster is a Summa Cum Laude graduate of Susquehanna University and a Cum Laude graduate of The Georgetown Law Center in Washington, D.C.

While in Hershey, Feaster spent time on the advisory boards of the Big 33 Scholarship Foundation, the Four Diamonds Fund at the Pennsylvania State University Milton S. Hershey Medical Center, and the Central PA Chapter of the National Multiple Sclerosis Society. He also taught business law and hotel law as a visiting faculty member at the Lebanon Valley College in Annville, PA.

Jay and his wife Anne have four children – Theresa (11), Bobby (9), Libby (7) and Ryan (3) – and reside in Valrico, Florida.
